

A Sea Monsters Tale

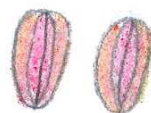

'Twas windy and the angry sea
Did shake and quiver in the world
All pimsy were the boats
And the people all the same

Beware the sea monster my son
The jaws that bite, the claws that catch
Beware the water bird also the sea monster
The famous claws of that

He took his elaborate sword in hand
Long time he waited for the monster of the deep
So he rested by the willing bank
And stood a while in thought

As in a worried thought he stood
The sea monster with eyes of flame
Came diving through the deep dark sea
And burbled as it came

One two one two and through and through
The razor blade went snicker and snacker
He left it dead, and with its head
He went rowing back

And have I slain the sea monster
Come to my arms my beautiful boy
O fabulous day Callooh Callay
He chortled in his joy

'Twas windy and the angry sea
Did shake and quiver in the world
All flimsy were the boats
And the people all the same

By:

Gursimran
Mandara

&

Karnet Sheela

